SHIPYARD ORDER No. 2-50

23 January 1950

(146)

Subj: Building Space Assignments to Departments or Activities for Good Housekeeping and Security

1. Responsibility for good housekeeping and security during working hours of all buildings in the Shipyard is hereby assigned to cognizant Department Heads or activities, as listed in paragraph 5 below.
2. Good housekeeping shall consist of maintaining an orderly and ship-shape appearance, proper storage of equipment, maintenance of aisles and fire lanes and other items leading to safe and proper working conditions for the accomplishment of assigned tasks.
3. Security shall consist of adequate inspection for, and elimination of, fire hazards, and securing of doors, windows, equipment and facilities as necessary to minimize the danger of fire or pilferage during or after working hours.
4. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to relieve the Public Works Department, or the Fire and Police Branches of the Administrative Department of the responsibility for cleaning, upkeep, inspection and protection of buildings as presently assigned in other Shipyard directives.
